

Workshop Envisioning Peace / Transforming Conflict Network

VIOLENCE, RESOURCES, JUSTICE AND THE PERSPECTIVE OF POWER

Bogotá, Universidad de los Andes, May 3 and 4, 2017

Program

May 3rd, First Session: INTRODUCTION 10 – 12.30

- Welcome: Angelika Rettberg & Sabine Kurtenbach
- Anika Oettler (PU Marburg): The EPTC Network – from Merian Centre to joint research
- Sabine Kurtenbach (GIGA): Perspectives on Peace – Theoretical and Conceptual Approaches

Discussion

Lunch

14-17.00 VIOLENCE AND POWER (Moderator Angelika Rettberg)

- Jenny Pearce (LSE): Pacification or Peacebuilding? Revisiting the State Monopoly of Violence in Latin America
- Ana Glenda Tager (Interpeace): Peacebuilding Approach to Armed Social Violence
- Ernst Halbmayer (PU Marburg): The victimized territory and the violating peace. Transitional justice and the perception of the peace treaty among the Yukpa
- Mónica Herz (PU Rio): Mediation as Global Governance

Discussion

Dinner

May 4th, 10 am – 12.30 RESOURCES AND POWER (MODERATOR Anika Oettler)

- Angelika Rettberg (Universidad de los Andes): Illicit economies during and after war in Colombia: Challenges for durable peace
- Stefan Sieber / Michelle Bonatti/ Marcos Lana (ZALF): Conflict and resources in land use projects: process, drivers and experiences
- Ludwig Huber (IEP): Defining who has rights - the state and previous consultations
- Philippe Le Billon (University of British Colombia): Deadly resource governance: Power, protest and repression around resource projects

Discussion

Lunch

14- 16.30 JUSTICE AND POWER (Moderator Sabine Kurtenbach)

- Carolina Galindo (Universidad Rosario): From the Justice and Peace Law to the Special Jurisdiction for Peace: some guidelines for a research agenda
- Anika Oettler (PU Marburg): Transitional Justice, Recognition and Authoritative Power.
- Malose Langa (University of Witwatersrand): Through the eyes of the insurgent citizenship: Contradictions and successes of transitional democracy in South Africa

Discussion

Wrap up and the way forward

Dinner